

CONTENTS

Preface	9
Introduction	13
Chapter 1. Death and facts	17
1. The appropriation mimesis.....	17
2. Within/without.....	19
3. The discourse of the media; objectivity and death	20
4. Systems of realities: the within/without paradigm revisited	21
5. Modern and postmodern dead bodies	22
6. Disinformation.....	26
Chapter 2. Change of paradigms	33
7. Public language/specialized languages.....	33
8. Public language/specialized languages, time and logic.....	37
9. Specialized languages and the appropriation mimesis	39
10. The stable third element of modernity: land; the dynamic third element of postmodernity: production of significations	43
11. Divergence between communication and information	45
12. Identities and the attribution process	47
13. Public and specialized languages at the international level	51
Chapter 3. Change, risk and new paradigms	57
14. Relativism, risk and success.....	57
15. Crossing limits: the local and the global.....	60
16. Mimesis and the new dynamic of interpretance	62
17. Change of paradigms in postmodern democracy	66
18. Secrets and ethics	69
19. Pointing out lies: a postmodern ethic	72
Chapter 4. Theory and contexts	77
20. Theory and pragmatism	77
21. Theory and reflexivity.....	80
22. Post-theory and contingency.....	84
23. Post-theory, narrativity and globalization	86
24. Narrativity and avatars	90

25. Post-theory and America.....	92
26. Post-theory and postcolonialism	93
27. Textual practices in the postmodern/postcolonial context.....	96
Conclusion	105
28. Violence and hatred.....	105
29. Identities and the future	107
Bibliography	110
Summary	121